

PETER BERGIN

Ragtime Concert Pianist

Celebrating Life – Music and Stories

ONE SHEET

Michigan-based ragtime artist, Peter Bergin, has entertained audiences for over two decades. Peter's mission is to celebrate life through music and stories, and especially loves sharing the rhythms of ragtime piano. Playing in the heart of community is what brings Peter great joy and satisfaction, and he looks forward to entertaining your community soon!

Visit www.berginmusic.com for live concert videos and demos.

Mix and match from these programs

Ragtime Spectacular

Classics to modern, this program includes favorites such as "The Entertainer" and "The Maple Leaf Rag".

Gottschalk to Gershwin

A unique crossover program blending ragtime with early American classical.

The Great American Songbook

George Gershwin, Glenn Miller, Irving Berlin ... only the best from the 30's, 40's and 50's.

TV Theme Songs

Relive and sing along to the hilarious sitcoms of the 60's - 90's

Patriotic

Sip your ice tea & lemonade as you sing along to this unabashed display of American patriotism.

Clientele

- Erickson Center for the Arts
- Bronner Performing Arts Center
- Glen Arbor Art Association
- Northport Comm. Arts Center
- The Music House Museum
- Allendale Public Library
- Charlevoix Public Library
- Livonia Public Library
- Sleder's On The Porch Series
- 1st Cong. Church, Battle Creek
- Rochester Hills Public Library
- Loutit District Library

"An exceptionally talented musician, both energetic and dynamic, a true artist."

- The Glen Arbor Sun